Character Excellence Scholarship

$1000 for College or Trade School

The applicant's grade point average and/or academic standing will not be factored into selection process.
We encourage students of all academic abilities to apply.

THE STUDENT ESSAY: Please read carefully.

Applicant should review the included Character Trait Reference Sheet (Page 6) for use in the writing of their essay. Our scoring rubric will gauge how the applicant conveys their understanding and application of their chosen character traits. The essay should explain in what way the traits have served them in their life up to this point, and how they will serve the student in the future. The first round is based on the essay alone. The Student Essay along with their reference letters will be considered in the final selection round.

ESSAY PROMPT

Every person has a story. Our stories are written from moments, experiences, and choices we make each day. Big or small, our story plays a role in the stories of others. No one is perfect. We all have struggles and successes; things we did right and those we'd improve; times we are proud of and those we'd like to change. The Character Council of WNY and Harvest Time Partners Foundation believe the practice of positive character has a direct impact on the way each person's story evolves. This scholarship is about You and how you feel character has shaped your story in the past, the present, and moving forward.

Keeping the above in mind, tell us your story.

PART 1 (intro and body of essay)

- Think of two examples in which you feel the demonstration of character impacted a situation or experience in your life.
- Each example must include at least one core or companion character trait from the list provided.
- Be specific in explaining how the chosen trait(s) impacted the experience and its outcome. This could be how you applied the trait, or perhaps how someone else displayed the trait in a way that had a major influence on you.

PART 2 (conclusion)

Success goes beyond a dictionary definition and it is different to each of us. Reflecting on how character has shaped your story thus far, the conclusion of your essay should tell us how character will impact your future and help you achieve your vision of success.

Parameters of Student Essay:

- No more than 750 words in length, double-spaced. Hand written essays will be accepted, but typed is preferred.
- Include 2 examples that specifically reference and demonstrate understanding of a minimum of 2 traits from the list in this application.
- Reflect your authentic voice, and show a genuine understanding of your chosen character traits' impact on you.
- Place equal emphasis to both part one and part two of your essay.
- DO NOT include your name on the essay pages, please.

Every person has a story...and everyone's story has significance. We can't wait to hear YOURS!
